

I am very concerned about the continued concentration of media outlets in a few large corporations. This strikes at the very essence of democracy and free speech. I am totally against any action by the FCC that allows more media consolidation.